Writing: a possible text

Last Sunday, I went to the mall with my mum and my brother. First, we went to the clothes shop. I tried on a blazer, but it didn’t fit. Then I found a nice sweater. It was thirty dinars. My brother bought a toy car for twelve dinars. My favourite shop is the bookshop. It is next to the café and opposite the toy shop. We went home in the evening, tired but very happy.

This is one good model among many. The pupil’s text is marked with the checklist.
